

Join Camden's Inclusive Business Network

“The network is a fantastic opportunity for us to collaborate with businesses across Camden, of all shapes and sizes and working in a diverse range of industries, but all sharing the common aim of becoming more inclusive workplaces.”

Lindsay Clarke, HR Manager,
Matrix Chambers

Here in Camden, we define good work as the ability for everyone to access the work that's right for them, in a job that provides income, stability and security which ultimately leads to a healthy, balanced life. We want to encourage businesses to be part of our Inclusive Business Network and be recognised as an employer that is inclusive, values its employees and is actively involved in driving good work practices.

Camden's Inclusive Business Network welcomes businesses of all sizes to work together to:

Make recruitment inclusive and accessible

Support progression and development

Ensure roles are flexible around people's lives and wellbeing

Provide people with job security and pay

The benefits of joining the network, include

Sharing good practice and knowledge with industry experts

Access to tools and resources

Receiving, or offering mentoring and coaching support

Light touch HR support and exploring workforce productivity

Receiving free recruitment assistance

For more information please visit goodwork.camden.gov.uk